

Separate and dissenting opinions in the European Court of Human Rights

1. This Microsoft Access database has been built by Dr Iris Boussiakou, Research Associate in the Department of Law, on a project funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council, whose principal investigator is Professor Robin White.
2. The database is offered for general use subject to acknowledgment of its authorship and funding for the research project by the AHRC.
3. The database is a working tool of the research project of which it forms part, and is not intended to be an intuitive vehicle for exploring the case law of the European Court of Human Rights. We would estimate that intermediate Microsoft Access database skills are needed to make any effective use of the database.
4. The database is offered for general use without any support from the research team or the University of Leicester generally.
